DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 6 of the claim after MFI, a semicolon should be changed to a comma. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Patent 6,093,867 to Ladwig et al. (hereinafter "Ladwig").

Ladwig discloses a process for producing C₃ olefins from a catalytically cracked or thermally cracked naphtha stream (col. 1, lines 5-26). The process is conducted using medium pore size zeolites including ZSM-5 having Si/A. ratio greater than about 40 (col. 4, lines 8-35). As the process proceeds the catalyst becomes deposited with coke, thereby, deactivating the catalyst. The coked catalyst is passed through a stripping zone and then to a regeneration zone where the coke deposits are burned in the presence of an oxygen containing gas. The regenerated catalyst is recycled to the reaction zone where it contacts fresh catalyst. See col. 2, lines 21-45 and col. 3, lines 16-50.

The difference between Ladwig and the claimed invention is that the Si/Al disclosed overlaps with the claimed range of 40-130.

However, it has been held in the case where the claimed ranges "overlap or lie inside ranges disclosed by the prior art" a prima facie case of obviousness exists. In re Wertheim, 191 USPQ 90 (CCPA 1976); In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1934 (Fed. Cir. 1990).

With regard to the sources of the feed as recited in claims 2 and 3, it would have been obvious to obtain the feed from any number of sources including the claimed sources at the claimed ranges with the expectation of reasonable success, absent any evidence of criticality.

With regard to the claimed space velocity and residence time of the catalyst in the reaction zone, it is within the level of one having ordinary skill in the art to have determined optimum effective process conditions including those claimed in claims 7-10.
